Adriana Segura Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Adriana Segura* has joined the Ridgewood group of Terrie O'Connor Realtors.

Born and raised in Colombia, Adriana earned a degree in architecture before coming to the United States in 1997. She began her career in the United States working as a designer in Tenaflly, Englewood and Alpine, with both new construction and additions. She later joined RKTB Architects in Manhattan, designing buildings as part of a team, most significantly Methodist Hospital in Brooklyn, NY. Adriana moved to Ridgewood in 2004 and began a career freelancing in residential design. Her most important project has been the architectural design for the expansion of the Ridgewood Montessori School in Paramus.

Adriana and her husband, Edward Kastl, live in Ridgewood with their son Maximilian, who attends George Washington School. In addition to her design career, Adriana has been teaching Spanish for many years and selling jewelry that her sister designs in Colombia. Adriana is fluent in Spanish and is also learning to speak Chinese.

Adriana understands that purchasing or selling a home is one of life's biggest decisions. Whether buying or selling, she looks forward to combining her talents for design and her knowledge of the local area to help her new clients make their real estate dreams come true.

Adriana Segura can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Ridgewood at (201) 445-4554 cell (201) 344-2520.
