Aimee L. Fischler Cohen Joins

Terrie O'Connor Realtors' Wyckoff Group

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Aimee L. Fischler Cohen has joined the firm's Wyckoff group. Real estate has always been a passion for Aimee.

Aimee received a Bachelors Degree in Fashion Merchandising from Buffalo State College. After college she began her career as a Department Manager for Federated Department Stores, as such, she supervised and coordinated the activities of the workers in her department. In addition, she planned department layouts, merchandise placement and advertising promotions. Quickly moving up, she was responsible for forecasting sales, financial budgets, market trends, and meeting w/suppliers. Most recently, she worked for Food-Tek, Inc where she sold a line of Gluten-Free products.

Aimee L. Fischler Cohen has resided in Mahwah with her husband and three sons for the past twenty years. She has been actively involved in fund raising for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation for the last 10 years. Her youngest son has Type 1 Diabetes. She also volunteers her time to helping, comforting and educating families of newly diagnosed children with diabetes and celiac.

Aimee's strong business background combined with her selling and negotiating skills is a great asset to her real estate clients. Along with her dedication, loyalty, and overall willingness to go the extra mile, her clients remain loyal to her as well.

Aimee looks forward to combining her marketing expertise and passion for real estate at Terrie O'Connor Realtors. She can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Wyckoff, at 201-891-0100 x244 or by cell phone, at 201-323-4022.
