Alisa DiGirolamo Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O' Connor, President of Terrie O' Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Alisa DiGirolamo has joined the Upper Saddle River group.

Alisa holds a Bachelor's degree in English as well as a multiple subject teaching credential. She has experience as a classroom teacher where she learned to be prepared, organized, and creative.

"Communication is a necessity in many careers," she explains. "As a teacher, I always established a professional and respectful environment in my classroom and I continue to bring the same standards and best practices to my real estate career. I know how to find the positive in situations."

As an educator, Alisa understands the importance of neighborhood and school communities to a home buyer. Her strong work ethic and positive attitude provide her clients support with the utmost dedication and diligence.

Alisa grew up in Southern California and moved to New Jersey 15 years ago. She now resides in Saddle River with her husband, an attorney, and two children. Alisa is very involved in her children's school where she volunteers for many events.

She can be reached at the office (201) 327-7100, by cell (201) 696-8596, or email adigirolamo@toocr.com.
