Anne Marangi Achieves Agent of the Month Award for June

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors is pleased to announce that Anne Marangi, sales associate of Terrie O'Connor Realtors recently received honors as top producer for the month of June for the Upper Saddle River Group.

Anne brings an incredible 33 years of real estate experience, as well as many Circle of Excellence achievements that include the Gold level for 2013, Bronze level for 2005, 2010-2012, and Silver for 2006-2009.

She earned a BA in Psychology and Elementary Education from Immaculata University and enjoyed a career as an elementary school teacher before entering the real estate industry.

Anne grew up in Wyckoff and has resided in Upper Saddle River for over 30 years. She has four grown children.

As a lifelong resident, she is very familiar with the Bergen County area and brings this knowledge to her role as an agent. This affords her clients a true advantage in marketing their home to potential buyers, or selecting a neighborhood and home that fits their specific needs.

Anne plays an active role in her community. She is involved in the Church of the Presentation and is proud to have helped many wonderful friends and their children find the perfect home.

"I love the business and I enjoy working with people and seeing their joy when they move into their dream home," she said.

Anne can be reached in the office (201) 417-0999, cell (201) 280-3850, or email amarangi@toctr.com
