Brian N. Kline Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Brian Kline has joined the Ridgewood office as a full time agent.

Brian graduated from Washington University in St. Louis where he studied International Business and Anthropology with a minor in Film and Media studies. His experience in tourism marketing, web design, and digital marketing afford him a great appreciation for today's cutting edge marketing methods, as well as experience in developing strong business relationships. He is a great networker and enjoys meeting people and reaching out to them. These skills easily transfer into his real estate business, by helping his clients market their homes, negotiate offers, and make smart purchasing decisions.

Brian is a lifelong resident of Mahwah and is very familiar with the area. He believes in giving back to the community and volunteers for causes that help collect food for charitable purposes. Brian is a creative thinker and brings a positive attitude and contagious enthusiasm to the workplace. He credits much of his success in life to having an optimistic, go-getter attitude.

Brian can be reached in the office at 201-445-4554 ext. 63, by cell at 201-669-1698, and via email at bnkline@toctr.com.
