David Duffy is Terrie O'Connor Realtors'

Allendale Office Sales Associate of the Month in January 2013

Terrie O'Connor, Broker/President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, would like to congratulate David Duffy of the Allendale Office on achieving Sales Associate of the Month in January 2013. His knowledge and expertise in the Northern New Jersey real estate market is proven by his success.

David, a proud Vietnam Veteran, was an Officer in the US Navy. He attended Boston College on a full athletic scholarship for ice hockey. He has also served his alma mater by being a member of its Alumni Board of Directors and Admissions Council. Later, David went on to a long career in corporate sales and marketing. For over 27 years, he worked for companies such as IBM, ITT, & GTE before retiring from the corporate world. Together with his family, David relocated for business 7 times and one international, an experience that truly helps him to understand the needs of the relocating families he works with. David has lived in Allendale for many years, having first moved to the area in 1977 while working for IBM.

After relocating, Dave returned to Allendale again in 1982, where he has lived since and raised two children. Despite being so busy, David still finds time to participate in many community organizations, volunteering all of his time. He was a respected councilman in Allendale for 15 years, and was past President of the Holiday Observers, a community group that organizes holiday celebrations for the town's families.

David Duffy, Broker/Sales Associate, has been a consistent producer in the Northern New Jersey market for many years, and looks forward to helping your real estate dreams come true.
