Dennis Conti Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Wyckoff resident Dennis Conti has joined the Wyckoff Group as a Sales Associate.

Dennis holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business with a minor in Accounting from William Paterson University. He began his business career as an Accountant and went on to become Founder and President of Career Trax, Inc., a full-service accounting and finance recruiting firm, which he has operated successfully for the past twenty years.

Dennis understands that building a solid relationship and earning the trust of his clients is paramount. Dennis has always had a strong interest in real estate and has owned many properties. As a recruiter who is skilled at matching the right person with the perfect job, Dennis decided to combine his talents and interest and pursue a career in real estate. Whether finding a job or a home for a client, Dennis understands his clients' needs and how to deliver outstanding results.

Dennis has lived in Wyckoff for nineteen years with his wife and two children. He has a daughter who attends Penn State University and a son who is in sixth grade at Eisenhower Middle School. Dennis has been a coach in the town's rec sports programs.

Dennis Conti looks forward to joining the Terrie O'Connor Realtors team and finding the home that is the perfect match for you. He can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Wyckoff at (201) 891-0100 or email him at dennis@tocr.com
