Diana Eisner Stroud Achieves "Circle of Excellence" by Real Estate Industry

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Diane Eisner Stroud has once again been awarded the prestigious NJAR Circle of Excellence Sales Award for 2007, the Sales Associate of the Year at the firm's Allendale office making this the third time she has earned both honors. In addition, Ms. Eisner Stroud was bestowed Top Company Producer in 2007 while completing and earning one of the highest designations in the Real Estate industry from The Graduate Realtor Institute.

Diane earned her license in 2002 and joined Terrie O'Connor Realtors in Spring 2003 when the firm opened its second office in Allendale. Since 2003, Terrie O'Connor Realtors has expanded to four offices and close to one hundred fifty agents. In addition to Diane's successful career, she is the current Past President of The Allendale Chamber of Commerce; the Chamber's former Vice President 2004-2005 and the Allendale Festival's Chairperson 2003-2005 and 2007. Diane moved to Upper Saddle River from Manhattan in 1992 and manages a successful career while supporting various local organizations and raising two children.

Diane attributes her success to being hard working, focused, self-motivated and a dedicated professional. Her previous career in the financial markets enabled her to adapt quickly to yet another highly competitive industry. Diane has a keen understanding of her clients' diverse needs including transferees and expatriates having lived in nine different states, South America and London.

Congratulations to Diane Eisner Stroud on a truly successful year! Diane may be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Allendale at 201-825-0500 ext. 13.
