Diane Kerester-Marotta Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Diane Kerester-Marotta has joined the firm's Allendale group as a Sales Associate.

Diane and her husband Mark have lived in Ho-Ho-Kus for over twenty-five years. They have raised two children who attended and played sports in the local schools. Diane has also been very involved in community service for over 15 years. She has worked tirelessly in the school systems and volunteered for such organizations as the Epilepsy Foundation and more recently for the Children's Aid & Family Services and at The Valley Hospital. She is currently working on a fundraiser for Children of Promise Stable, a non-profit organization that helps special needs children learn to ride horses.

Diane is a former Wall Streeter with over 15 years of business experience. Diane began her career as a full service account executive for Drexel Burnham in the commodities division. She holds a BA in Economics from Tufts University.

With her strong customer service experience, skill set and outgoing personality, Diane found a career in real estate to be a natural transition. She prides herself on being an excellent communicator with naturally strong relationship building skills. She looks forward to being a part of the Terrie O'Connor Realtors Sales Team. Diane Kerester-Marotta can be reached at the Allendale group of Terrie O'Connor Realtors at (201) 825-0500 ext. by 22 or e-mail at dmarotta@tocr.com.
