Janet Maniscalco Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

New Upper Saddle River office

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Janet Maniscalco has joined the New Upper Saddle River Group.

Janet brings over nine years experience as a real estate agent, working with both buyers and sellers in Bergen and Passaic Counties. She is a member of NJ Association of Realtors, National Association of Realtors, Real Source Board of Realtors, and NJ MLS. She holds an AA of Business and a P&C license.

For 15 years, Janet excelled as a marketing/sales manager where she introduced and marketed insurance products, recruited and trained sales representatives, and supervised personnel. This professional experience affords her specialized skills in marketing as well as negotiation. She brings these advantages to her real estate clients in each transaction.

“As a sales professional, my goal is to expertly guide buyers and sellers through their real estate experience using my specialized skills as a negotiator and marketer,” she explains. “My clients are my best asset! Through dedication and knowledgeable representation, I strive to make every real estate transaction quick, stress-less, and rewarding.”

Janet understands the importance of listening to her clients and learning their needs. She is proud to say she works with honesty and integrity.

Janet grew up in Emerson and has lived in Montvale for 40 years with her husband, Richard. She is the proud mother of an Air Force veteran, Keith, who resides in Montvale with his wife Dolores.

Janet can be reached in the office (201) 327-7100, cell (201) 417-0999, or email her at jmaniscalco@toctr.com
