Terrie O'Connor Realtors Ramsey Group Names Judy Pisani New Broker Manager

Terrie O' Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Judy Pisani has joined the Ramsey Group as Broker Manager.

Judy has extensive knowledge and experience in the industry, having been a real estate agent for 26 years. Judy has been part of many New Home Development Projects with several different developers. Old Forge Builders, Inc. notes that Judy possesses all of the personal integrity and business skills that you would want and need in a realtor. She loves taking on projects from the very beginning and challenging all market conditions.

She has been a consistent achiever in the Circle of Excellence, New Jersey Association of Realtors Million Dollar Sales Club. She was also nominated into Who's Who in Business.

Her extreme patience and outstanding people skills are appreciated by all her clients. "I get along with just about everyone!" she shares. "Patience goes a very long way in this industry and is one of my most appreciated skills by clients."

Judy was born and raised in Ho-Ho-Kus and always had a love for horses. She started riding at Mar Bell Stables in Washington Township and years later obtained a Harness Trainers license. She worked as a Payroll Supervisor at Garden State Racetrack in Cherry Hill and left in 1987 to pursue a career in Real Estate.

In 1993, Judy moved back to Ramsey and obtained her Broker License. She also has two other designation GRI (Graduate of Realtors Institute), CRS (Certified Residential Specialist)

She now resides in Ramsey with her two children living nearby.

She can be reached in the office 201-934-0600, cell 201-264-0348, email jpisani@tochr.com
