Juliana Sullivan of Terrie O'Connor Realtors Achieves Agent of the Month Award for July

Terrie O'Connor Realtors is pleased to announce that Juliana Sullivan, Sales Associate of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, recently received honors as top producer for the month of July for the Ridgewood Group.

Juliana has been in the Real Estate business for four years and has quickly launched a promising career. The two main components of her business approach are educating her clients about the market and providing support from the beginning to the end of a transaction.

Juliana studied psychology at the College of New Jersey and worked at an out patient treatment center for over two years before joining Terrie O'Connor Realtors. Her background has given her the experience to assess her client's needs and coach them through the home buying and selling process.

Born and raised in Midland Park, Juliana comes from a family with an established real estate background. Her grandmother is a Realtor and her father owns and operates a construction company that specializes in building/renovating homes in northern Bergen County.

Currently, Juliana is an active member of the Woman's Club of Ridgewood. Juliana is also one of the founding members of the Terrie O'Connor Realtors Young Professional Connection which is a group of younger Real Estate Professionals working together to foster growth and success in the business, as well as give back to the community in which they service.
