Terrie O'Connor Realtors congratulates Catherine 'Katy' O'Connor Smiechowski for her outstanding performance in achieving the prestigious New Jersey Association of Realtors® Circle of Excellence Award® Bronze Level for 2014. Katy has continued to be a premier agent and consistent top producer working with buyers and sellers.

Katy O'Connor Smiechowski has been working in Real Estate since she was old enough to stuff mailing envelopes for her mother at age 10. The oldest daughter of Terrie O'Connor, she has been licensed since she was 18 back in 1991 and has been actively involved in the growth of Terrie O'Connor Realtors since its inception.

Katy earned a BA in Elementary Education from Rutgers College in 1994, and completed a MA in Curriculum and Instruction from Columbia University, Teacher's College in 1998. While working part-time as a Realtor, helping mostly family and friends, Katy taught in the Upper Saddle River Schools for nearly 8 years. Since leaving teaching, Katy has been working solely as a Realtor earning recognition as the Realtor of the Month numerous times throughout the years.

Katy and her husband have been lifelong residents in Bergen County. Both grew up in Upper Saddle River where they currently reside, and previously spent five years living in Ramsey. She and her husband have 4 beautiful children, and Katy is very active in their school communities. Katy served on the Board at Archer Cooperative Nursery School in Allendale for 4 years, and is currently a member of the Upper Saddle River Board of Education.

Katy knows real estate, knows this community, and has specific insight into the workings of the local public schools - the main reason why so many move to the Bergen County area. She is a true professional, always putting the needs of her clients first. Her goal is to make the process of buying or selling a house, as easy as it can possibly be.
