Lynn Clark Achieves Agent of the Month Award for August

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors is pleased to announce that Lynn Clark, sales associate of Terrie O'Connor Realtors recently received honors as top producer for the month of August for the Saddle River Group.

In today's busy world, professionals and their families often seek a peaceful oasis to escape to at day's end. Saddle River, a scenic upscale town in northeastern New Jersey, offers just that and Lynn Clark, a seasoned real estate professional with Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is most knowledgeable about the town's properties, specializing in the sale of its luxury homes.

Lynn, a consistent million dollar producer, has been in the real estate business for over 25 years. A long time resident of Saddle River, Lynn's solid reputation and strong community involvement makes her the first person residents turn to when they wish to put their homes on the market. Having raised her own three children in Saddle River, Lynn cites the town as a fabulous investment and beautiful, friendly community. Its close proximity to New York City makes Saddle River the ideal place to live. Residents benefit from a secluded, country setting while living just 40 minutes from the city's businesses and cultural attractions. There's so much to do in town too. Lynn personally enjoys golfing and playing tennis while still finding time to participate in various real estate organizations, the Saddle River Valley Club, the Saddle River Garden Club and the Saddle River Book Club, and the Valley Hospital Auxiliary.

Lynn's high level of commitment to her clients is incomparable. From the moment you meet her, you know that Lynn will dedicate herself to helping you find the house of your dreams. Lynn prides herself on providing a superior level of quality service. Lynn would be happy to share her expertise with you while helping you find a fabulous home in the town she knows and loves so well.

Lynn can be reached in the office (201) 934-4900 ext. 49, cell (201) 220-7577, or email lynnclark@tocr.com
