Marjorie Fiori Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Marjorie (Marge) Fiori has joined the Saddle River group as a Sales Associate. A resident of Upper Saddle River, Ms. Fiori holds an MBA from Columbia University and an undergraduate degree from Boston College. Marge previously worked at Mobil Oil and American Express in finance.

Marge has resided in Upper Saddle River with her husband, Ken, and two sons for twelve years. She has volunteered her time in the town's schools as well as at Presentation Church, where she and her family are parishioners. Marge has also been actively involved volunteering in Upper Saddle River and Northern Highlands sports programs. Her husband, Ken, has volunteered coaching recreation football, wrestling, and baseball for Upper Saddle River.

Marge is excited to join Terrie O'Connor Realtors. She appreciates the very professional atmosphere that the firm offers its clients. Marge looks forward to putting her knowledge of the local area, and her previous work experience to work for her friends and neighbors in Upper Saddle River and the surrounding towns. She can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, (201) 934-4900.
