

TERRIE O'CONNOR

REALTORS

Matthew Hazuda Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Matthew Hazuda has joined the firm's Wyckoff group as a Sales Associate. While this marks the beginning of Matthew's career as a Real Estate Agent, he has been involved in the housing industry with home remodeling and repairs since 1982. After finishing high school, Matthew immediately went into business as a general contractor remodeling kitchens and bathrooms. After five years, he changed his career path, attended college and began a new career in Information Technology. He worked as a Senior Business Analyst and IT Project Manager for Ernst & Young LLP for 16 years. During Matt's tenure at Ernst & Young, he had the opportunity to work with Rudy Giuliani and Major League Baseball as clients. His background as a contractor coupled with his business experience will serve as a great asset to his clients.

Matthew currently lives in Budd Lake NJ but was a resident of Paramus, NJ for 20 years. He has two children in high school. Matt is the president of a local youth hockey organization called the New Jersey Wild. The organization consists of 5 teams with age groups ranging from 6 to 17 yrs old. He also volunteers his time as much as possible, having worked in the kitchen at a homeless shelter in Union City, NJ and often can be found playing his guitar for the children who attend the shelter's after school program. In addition, Matt is actively involved with a wolf (and wolf dog) rescue organization in Jackson, NJ called Howling Woods Farm. He speaks at many different events educating audiences regarding wildlife conservation, wolves and wolf dog hybrid ownership.

“Working in the professional services field has allowed me to connect with others at a very deep level. There is nothing more satisfying than helping someone achieve their goals. Whether it is buying a new home or starting a new business venture, personal and heartfelt service will always be a key element.” Matthew Hazuda looks forward to serving his new clients at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Wyckoff. He can be reached at (201) 317-7987 ext. 223.