Worldwide ERC® Awards CRP® Designation
To Matthew O'Connor of Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Worldwide ERC® a professional membership association comprised of individuals concerned with domestic and international employee mobility, recently announced that Matthew O'Connor, Vice President of Operations and Relocation Director of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, has earned the Certified Relocation Professional (CRP®) designation after recently successfully completing the CRP® exam.

The CRP® program was introduced in 1990 to formally recognize Worldwide ERC® members' knowledge of the entire relocation industry, and requires awareness of residential real estate and appraising, corporate relocation policies and issues, relocation tax and legal issues, family relocation issues, and mobility strategies. Over 4,200 Worldwide ERC® members currently hold the CRP® designation. Worldwide ERC® Certified Relocation Professionals™ retain their designations by maintaining membership in the association and by earning 30 recertification credit hours within each three-year period following their initial certification.

Matthew O'Connor is a significant force in the growth and development of Terrie O'Connor Realtors. His new designation will help the company which has been serving the Bergen, Passaic, Hudson and Rockland County's area since 1991. The company operates in Northern New Jersey, headquartered in Ramsey. The company has 5 offices and over 200 sales associates providing real estate sales and marketing services for both residential and commercial properties. Our corporate Relocation Center is only thirty minutes from Manhattan. As an independent real estate broker, Terrie O'Connor Realtors consistently ranks in the top of the markets served. The offices are located in Saddle River, Allendale, Ridgewood and two offices in Ramsey, New Jersey.
