Maureen A. Gallagher Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Allendale resident Maureen Gallagher has joined the firm as a Sales Associate.

After 35 dedicated years, Maureen recently retired from her career as a flight attendant. She has lived in Allendale since 1989. She and her husband, Brian, raised their four children in town.

Throughout her years in Allendale, Maureen was an active volunteer in the community. While her children were attending the Allendale school system, Maureen was an active PTO volunteer. Her children went on to attend Bergen Catholic High School and Immaculate Heart Academy. Maureen is currently the treasurer of a charitable and social organization for retired and active flight attendants and is also very involved at her church.

Her years in customer service, knowledge of the local area and outgoing personality make Maureen an excellent candidate for a career in real estate. Maureen prides herself on being a good listener and a flexible person, talents needed to assist clients in this challenging and ever changing market. She is not afraid to work hard and go that extra mile to make sure her clients are extremely satisfied.

Whether buying or selling, Maureen Gallagher looks forward to assisting her clients in Allendale and the surrounding towns in meeting all of their real estate needs. She can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Allendale at 201-825-0500 x38 or on her cell phone at 201-220-5036. She can also be reached by email at mgallagher@tocr.com.
