Michael LaPorta Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors Wyckoff Group

Terrie O' Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Michael LaPorta has joined the Wyckoff Group.

Michael earned a BS in Marketing and Management from Ramapo College as well as a Master of Business Administration from Felician College. For the past five years, he has been working as a Residence Director at Ramapo College. This position has given him important leadership experience and an appreciation for helping students find suitable living conditions for their individual situation. "My position with Residence Life is customer service focused. I strive to make my residents as happy as possible," he explains.

Over the past ten years, Michael's involvement with residence life has steered his career interests to the real estate industry. He looks forward to ensuring his clients are satisfied. "I'm willing to go above and beyond," he says.

He recently obtained a project management certificate.

Michael is married and lives in Mahwah. He has been in the area since 2003.

Michael can be reached at the Wyckoff office at 201-891-0100, his cell at 908-872-1853 or email him at: mlaporta@tocr.com
