

TERRIE O'CONNOR

REALTORS

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Allendale resident Michael Norton has joined the firm's Allendale Office. Michael brings a wealth of experience in real estate management and home remodeling to his role as a Sales Associate.

Michael Norton earned his real estate license twenty years ago. He has served as manager of the Interstate Shopping Center as well as owner of Corinthian Manufacturing, a custom counter top business. Michael is affiliated with the Allendale Kitchen and Bath Design. He is an accredited designer and member of the National Kitchen and Bath Association. His love for remodeling and building led him to pursue a career in real estate. Michael enjoys putting this knowledge to work for his clients. His experience gives him the ability to envision the possibilities each home has to offer. Michael is also very interested in universal design and the trend toward creating eco-friendly, energy efficient "green homes".

Michael Norton has resided in Allendale for twenty years. He is a lifelong Bergen County resident and grew up in Ridgewood. In his spare time he has completed bike rides to raise funds for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. He has two children who attend Northern Highlands Regional High School.

Michael Norton looks forward to helping his friends and neighbors from Allendale and the surrounding towns in meeting their real estate needs. He can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Allendale at (201) 825-0500 ext. 12.
