Margaret 'Peggie' Breslin Achieves the
New Jersey Association of Realtors®
Circle of Excellence Award®

Terrie O'Connor Realtors Ramsey Group congratulates Margaret “Peggie” Breslin for her outstanding performance in achieving the prestigious New Jersey Association of Realtors® Circle of Excellence Award® Bronze Level for 2013. Peggie has been in the real estate business since 2000 and is a repeated recipient of this prestigious New Jersey Realtors Circle of Excellence Award. The honor is earned by Realtors who have demonstrated excellence in their profession.

A lifelong resident of Bergen County and former teacher in the Fair Lawn school district, Peggie has always been an active member of the community. A member of St. Paul's Church, Peggie has served on various school board organizations and is presently a member of the St. Paul's School Advisory Board. A member of the Ramsey Centennial Committee, the original Ramsey Creative Playground project & Past President of the Bergen Highlands League of Women Voters, Peggie continues to stay involved, most recently serving on the Ramsey Farmers' Market Committee and the outreach food committee for Eva's Kitchen.

Peggie's success in the real estate business can be attributed to her reputation for honesty, integrity and professionalism. She brings an extensive knowledge of all areas of Bergen County and a strong commitment to satisfaction for all of her customers at Terrie O'Connor Realtors.

Peggie and her husband, Jay, an attorney in Hackensack, have lived in Ramsey for over thirty five years and are proud to have raised their four children in such a wonderful town.

Peggie may be reached at 201-934-0600 ext. 68 or you may e-mail her at pbreslin@toctr.com
