Terrie O’Connor Realtors

Lights, camera, real estate! Selling dreams to people is what Richard “Rick” Morand has been doing since he started out in television production back in 1977. This former commercial, promotions, and newscast producer-director and now Realtor® has recently brought his marketing skills to Terrie O'Connor Realtors.

“I thought television had taught me good cross-country people skills, but then I met Terrie O’Connor, the consummate global professional. With nearby Manhattan as a job magnet, the face of northern New Jersey is becoming more international, and Terrie O'Connor Realtors is aware that the next home purchaser can be from either Bergen County, New Jersey, or Bergen, Norway. Communication is paramount.”

Although Rick has lived in North Carolina most of his life, he was born and raised in West Orange. As a true “Jersey Boy,” Rick recently returned to the Garden State to marry his American University sweetheart Randi, and they currently reside in Ramsey.

“I reconnected with Randi through Classmates.com. Best move I ever made!”

Rick is currently a drummer in the Glen Rock Pops and is a brotherhood member of Beth Haverim Shir Shalom in Mahwah.

For all of your real estate needs, please contact Rick at Terrie O'Connor Realtors 201-934-4900 Ext. 21. And you can count on him to recommend where the wide-screen TV goes.
