Ruth Wallis Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Ruth Wallis has joined the firm as a full time Sales Associate in the Ridgewood office. Ruth has been a licensed real estate professional for over 26 years. With a background as a public relations executive, followed by owning her own manufacturing company for 18 years, real estate was a perfect career move for Mrs. Wallis. She has been a recipient of numerous sales awards, including the NJ Association of Realtors million dollar sales club.

Ruth Wallis is excited to join Terrie O'Connor realtors and provide her clients with the more personalized professional service that characterizes the firm's reputation. Areas of specialty for Ruth include relocation, starter homes, trophy homes, rentals and land acquisition. Having managed and supervised a new construction sales office for a 43 home subdivision and working extensively with builders, she also prides herself on her extensive knowledge regarding new construction. No matter what her clients needs may be, Ruth is dedicated, organized and she will make a full time commitment to them, ensuring the time spent together is pleasurable as well as successful.

Born and educated in London, England, Ruth Wallis has been a Bergen County resident for over 40 years and currently resides in Oakland, NJ. When she is not working, Ruth enjoys walking her dog, and her hobbies - reading, cooking and knitting. You can contact Ruth at (201) 445-4554 ext. 49.
