Suzanne Kasabian Joins
Terrie O'Connor Realtors
Wyckoff Group

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Suzanne Kasabian has joined the firm's Wyckoff group as a Sales Associate.

Born and raised in Wyckoff, Suzanne lived in New York City, Boston, and Manhasset, Long Island before returning to her hometown. A graduate of Penn State University, Suzanne began her career as a securities and commodities broker at Smith Barney. While raising her three children, Suzanne relocated several times, giving her a unique perspective of the real estate market and the ability to identify a good value. After returning to Wyckoff, Suzanne recognized her passion for real estate, coupled with her distinct knowledge of Wyckoff and its surrounding towns, make her the ideal candidate for a career with Terrie O'Connor Realtors. Suzanne appreciates the individual needs of prospective homeowners, and her insight and respect for client services affords her a solid position in this industry.

In her spare time Suzanne is a volunteer for Eva's Village of Hope in Paterson, NJ working with young children in academic and extracurricular capacities. And she continues to volunteer as a Sunday school teacher and an active leader in her church.

Suzanne Kasabian is a woman who prides herself on her honesty and integrity, setting the bar high in everything she does. She is thrilled to be part of a company that is known for its esteemed business practice. Suzanne is looking forward to helping her neighbors in Wyckoff and surrounding towns make their real estate dreams come true. She can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Wyckoff at (201) 891-0100 ext. 224 or her Cell at (201) 240-1532.
