Tammy Roberts Heads Up House Team for Rebuilding Together Bergen County

Recently Tammy Roberts of Terrie O'Connor Realtors Saddle River Group was appointed to head up a house team for Rebuilding Together Bergen County, a RealSource Association of Realtors Community Service Project and Event.

The RealSource Association of Realtors partnered with Glen Rock-based Rebuilding Together Bergen County to help rebuild, repair and restore homes for families in need throughout Northern New Jersey as a means to help build better communities in the areas in which they live and work. Sponsored by the association's Community Service Committee headed by Tammy Roberts and its Board of Directors, Realtors replaced windows, did painting, repaired bathrooms and overhauled landscaping projects and overall outside clean up.

“This was a very exciting day for us,” said Tammy. “I am so happy that so many came out to support and volunteer their time for this great cause. It is such a wonderful feeling you get when you can help support communities and families in rebuilding their most precious commodity as their home.”

Tammy Roberts has been a successful Bergen County Realtor for over 14 years. She joined Terrie O'Connor Realtors Saddle River office 12 years ago and has since received numerous awards and recognition for her work. She is proud to be a member of the Terrie O'Connor Realtors family and all that it embodies with its affiliation as part of Leading RE Network, providing local expertise with global connections. She believes that professionalism and experience in today's challenging marketplace are what will get the job done.
