Tammy Roberts of Terrie O'Connor Realtors Earns ABR® Designation

Tammy Roberts with Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Saddle River Group, recently earned the highly recognized ABR® "Accredited Buyer Representative" designation. The ABR® added designation means that your Realtor has additional knowledge in representing buyers in real estate transactions.

An ABR® designation helps put your Realtor one step above their competition. If you are looking to purchase, they can represent you better because of this specific training. They have the upper edge on negotiating on your behalf along with giving you more information on the purchasing experience including inspections, property disclosures and looking out for YOUR best interest at all times. To receive an ABR® designation, a Realtor has to complete 3 days of education and meet certain sales requirements. She now adds this certification to her other e-PRO® and REO designations.
