Terrie O'Connor Realtors Welcomes Lenni Puritz to the Ridgewood Office

Terrie O'Connor, of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Lenni Puritz has joined the firm as a Sales Associates in the Ridgewood office. An active realtor since 1973, Ms. Puritz was the founding partner of Puritz Lear Realtors in Ridgewood, and served for many years as an executive board member of the Northwest Board of Realtors, which honored her by naming her Realtor of the Year.

Settling in Glen Rock, Lenni and her husband Robert, a real estate developer, raised three children and they currently enjoy spending time with their five granddaughters.

Lenni was formerly on the executive boards of: The United Way, West Bergen Mental Health, Community Blood Center and the Glen Rock Unified Scholarship Council that declared a "Lenni Puritz Day" in recognition of her 20 years of leadership on the council.

Lenni is a life member of RPAC (Realtors Political Action Committee) and Brandies University Women's Committee. She is also a member of the Valley Hospital Auxillary – Glen Rock and RealSource Board of Realtors.

Mrs. Puritz brings a warm and wonderful enthusiasm to the office and looks forward to providing her clients with personalized professional service that characterizes the firm's reputation.
