

TERRIE O'CONNOR

REALTORS

Patricia "Pat" Draper Joins Terrie O'Connor Realtors

Terrie O'Connor, President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to announce that Patricia "Pat" Draper has joined the Saddle River Office as a Sales Associate. Pat comes to the firm after working as a Sales Associate for another local broker.

Pat Draper has resided in Bergen County with her husband, Bob, for the past thirty-six years. Prior to her career in real estate, Pat worked as a teacher in NYC and Bergen County. She earned a BS degree from SUNY and an MS from Brooklyn College and received the Governor's Teacher Recognition Award in 1992. Pat enjoys living and working in the local area and is extremely knowledgeable about the Northern Bergen County schools and communities.

Pat believes in a client-focused approach and gives a high level of commitment to her buyers and sellers. She feels that being a good listener is most important in understanding her clients' needs. Pat's strong negotiation skills are an asset to her customers, and she is always dedicated to guiding them through every step of the process. She is loyal, knowledgeable, friendly, and experienced.

Working together with her husband, C. Robert Draper, Pat looks forward to providing her clients in the surrounding towns with a team approach to first class service. Patricia (Pat) Draper can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Saddle River, at (201) 934-4900 Ext. 42.