Terrie O'Connor Realtors, Ramsey Group Goes Green!

Terrie O'Connor Realtors is hosting a Going Green event at the Knights of Columbus in Ramsey, on Thursday, March 26 from 6-9 pm. Join us for this cutting edge seminar with our expert panel of eco-friendly professionals: Steve Pisano from Natural Energy Industries; Joe Racamato-Silex Financial (Certified Green Lender); Steve Tesoriero-Renewable Resource Systems; Eric Kiellar-Blueline Architecture; Rose Marie Carr-Kitchens by Rose; Robert Connell-American Environmental Services, Co.; and Ramsey Building Code Officer and Chris Cipriano-Cipriano Landscape Design. Topics will include ways to save money while becoming more environmentally friendly at work and home.

Terrie O'Connor Realtors' Sales Associate Sean Farley rallied the Ramsey sales Associates to start recycling paper, switch to energy efficient lighting, use ceramic coffee mugs instead of paper, and they did not stop there!

Members of Ramsey High School's Environmental Club are meeting with the Sales Associates to advise and discuss their own endeavors in transforming their school into a more environmentally friendly place.
