Organizes Thanksgiving Food Drive 2014

Terrie O'Connor Realtors Young Professional Connection (YPC) recently organized a Thanksgiving Food Drive in order to collect canned goods and donations for those less fortunate. Two car loads of collected items were dropped off at the Center for Food Action in Mahwah, New Jersey in time for Thanksgiving.

Terrie O'Connor Realtors YPC is an organization consisting of sales representatives and business professionals working throughout the company's eight offices in Northern New Jersey. Terrie O'Connor Realtors YPC has a goal of working together as a group in an effort to promote a positive business environment while helping the community. Their recent food drive involved getting donations from the entire company, which consists of approximately three hundred sales associates.
