Terrie O'Connor Realtors Welcomes Zachary 'Zach' Lisella as a Sales Associate

Terrie O'Connor, Broker/President of Terrie O'Connor Realtors, is pleased to welcome Zachary "Zach" Lisella to the firm. Zach, a resident of Bergen County, has recently joined the firm's Allendale office as a sales associate. A graduate of Northern Highlands Regional High School, Mr. Lisella currently attends Ramapo College of New Jersey. He plans to study business and marketing, improving his skills in the field.

Zach Lisella hopes that customers will recognize the hard work and dedication he will put forth when selling homes. Spending three years in the business organization DECA has provided Zach with excellent marketing experience. He can use his knowledge learned in the club or Broker/Manager and mother Nicolette "Nickie" Lisella, GRI as reference points.

Terrie O'Connor Realtors' excellent reputation and rapidly growing presence in the area made the company an obvious choice for Zach. "I have worked at the company for a few years as an assistant administrator, and the decision to bring my license here came without question." Being a functioning part of the company has given Zach an excellent head start and background of the real estate industry.

Zachary "Zach" Lisella looks forward to helping you and your family or friends find their dream home. He can be reached at Terrie O'Connor Realtors by phone at (201) 825-0500 ext. 79. He may also be contacted by cell phone at (201) 661-0527 or e-mail, zlisella@tocr.com.
